April – June 2011

Dear Praying Friends,

Thank you for your prayers and faithful support. I have been praying for the Lord to open doors to present the Gospel and be a blessing to these who need encouragement.

Child Evangelism Fellowship asked my pastor, Bo Mackey, to pray about heading up a Good News Club in a new elementary school. We talked with CEF and feel this would be a wonderful opportunity to reach boys and girls in our community for Christ. Our church will be the lead church and control the Bible and direction of the Club, the program is sound scripturally, and is focused on salvation. We also have the opportunity to do follow up in the homes of these children. The club meets once a week and I will be the coordinator. Many children have been saved as a result of these clubs.

I also have the opportunity to do volunteer work in the women's prisons in South Carolina. I have volunteered to teach VBS at the Department of Juvenile Justice the first week in August. Please pray for these new opportunities to serve the Lord. I am excited and feel I can be a blessing. I will have to take some training in order to do these new ministries. Please pray for me.

I am still working at Richard Campbell Veterans Home and reading the Bible to several residents as well as helping with their choir. These men are a blessing to me. I was asked to read the Bible to a converted Buddhist who was saved since coming into the home. We have a new chaplain at the home and he is a good man. So far, in this facility, we are not restricted in our witness for the Lord. The chaplain wanted military Bibles and New Testaments to use in the home with the residents and when he counsels with their families.

Please continue to pray for me that I will do what the Lord would have me to do.

In Christ,

Faye Owens
